Resource Consent Hearing - Update

Bathurst Resources Limited (ASX & NZX: BTU) provides the following update on the Resource Consent hearing process for the Escarpment mine and coal processing plant at its Buller project in Westport, New Zealand.

The Company can confirm that the formal hearing process in Westport has now concluded and the process adjourned to allow the Company to provide the Commissioners with written responses to certain questions raised during the hearing.

Furthermore, the Company has been requested to provide a final draft set of terms and conditions for the resource consents, should they be granted, which incorporate a number of matters raised during the process to date.

Once the above are complete the Commissioners will begin their determination.
